DAVIS THEATRE. Kellermann, the Perfect Wom, in "Neptund's Daughter.

Restance's Daughter was produced at it a cost of $70,000 and was three months in preparation. Its success in New York has been sensational. Broadway's most fashionable playhouse, the Globe theatre, where it is injured a phenomenal run was filled at every performance with entranced andiences, whose interest and applause endorsed the general opiniden that this is the greatest photoplay ever groduced. Never before have the newspapers of New York devoted so much attention to or bestowed as much praise on a film production.

In addition to this wonderful feature there will be a program of Mutual movies, including the Mutual War Weekly and one funny Keystone comedy. On Tuesday and Wednesday episode No. 20 of the Million Dollar Diystery will also be shown. Two shows dally, at 2.30 and 7 p. m., mathree 10 and 15 cents, evening 10 15.
